About Bahir Dar Foundation

The Bahir Dar Child Care Centre (BDCCC) located in Bahir Dar, Ethiopia is home for about 40 children between the ages of 9 – 17 years who are at the center because they are fully orphaned or abandoned, or from parents terminally ill, mentally incapacitated or too destitute to provide for their children.

BDCCC provides these children with housing, basic needs and education at a cost of USD$600 per year per child. Until 2008, the center was financially supported by European charitable organizations. However, since the 2008 financial crisis, that support has totally ceased and the BDCCC has been surviving on year to year charity from individuals and the Bahir Dar Foundation. Friends of the BDCCC founded the Bahir Dar Foundation a 501(c)(3) organization in 2013 to help raise funds here in the United States. Our objective is to provide finance for care to as many children as possible each year, so BDCCC can continue to do its amazing work.
